

Dick Evans Memorial Road Race

Sunday, August 27, 2023 - 5:45am Start

Route: Race starts at Kalama Valley Shopping Center in Hawaii Kai and proceeds at a controlled pace to Waikiki, through town along Nimitz to Waipahu. The controlled pace ends as the race turns onto Kunia road. Route follows the main highway to Haleiwa, along the North Shore and back to the start via Kaneohe, Waimanalo and Hawaii Kai.

There is a moving police enclosure for the main peloton. Cyclists that fall out of the main peloton must obey all traffic rules and regulations.

Aid stations are provided at the top of Kunia hill, in Kahuku, in Temple Valley and at Olomana.

Riders of all levels are welcome but riders must be prepared to ride the distance. LIMITED mechanical, wheel car and Sag vehicle support is provided.

Packet Pick Up Saturday August 26th at Triangle Park (Fort Ruger Park).

Awards:

- Perpetual first place trophy
- Individual awards for Top 5 Men, Top 3 Women, and 1st Junior
- Perpetual Best Team Finish Award for the top 5 men & top 3 women from each team based on placing/points.

Rules:

- All riders must have a USA Cycling license or else pay a $10 one day license fee.
- Road bikes only. No clip-on bar extensions or aero bars.
- No sleeveless jerseys or triathlon tops allowed

Entry Fees:

Register on <http://BikeReg.com/DEMRR>

Men (18+) & Women (18+) - $120

Juniors (15-18) - $60

+ $20 Late Fee after 8/12/23

ALOHA STATE

BICYCLE RACING